Parménide. Le Poème (Quadrige) (French Edition): Beaufret ... The argument of Parmenides' Truth can be understood in dialectical terms, based on a self-verifying premiss in the second person, 'you think', in combination with some rules for sound argument. From this premiss he may be construed as deriving the conclusion of strong monism: there is just one, single, homogeneous being. But the conclusion serves to overturn the premiss; it appears to be ...
