Wolf Solent John Cowper Powys

Wolf Solent is a novel by John Cowper Powys (1872–1963) that was written while he was based in Patchin Place, New York City, and travelling around the US as a lecturer. It was published by Simon and Schuster in May 1929 in New York. The British edition, published by Jonathan Cape, appeared in July 1929. This, Powys's fourth novel, was his first literary success.

Wolf Solent - Wikipedia

Wolf Solent is absolutely fantastical. The protagonist would never claim to be, but he is a mystic. (In other words, John Cowper Powys is a mystic too.) If you're spiritual at all, you'll be fascinated by Powys descriptions of mystical states and situations, and his descriptions in general. This is a deeper book, though.

John Cowper Powys (Author of Wolf Solent) - Goodreads

In a key passage, Solent engages in an imaginary dialogue with the skull of his dead father (the disembodied head is a key motif for Cowper Powys, and one that comes from the Mabinogion). Wolf asserts that reality is an illusion caused by consciousness, while his father asserts that the only reality is the natural world: "There is no reality but what the mind fashions out of itself.
